Public Comment: none

1. President Pete Eberle spoke briefly about County efforts to update the Strategic Plan for the next 5 years. He mentioned that public input was available via the web site www.OneKingConty.info. Public input would be accepted until 30 November.
2. Pete E made a short comment about the CARE/SWAN MOU with King County. In response to a question, Tom C stated that the purpose is renewal of Atlas support and creek stewardship. Motion made, seconded and passed to continue support of the MOU.
3. Alyssa Eberle volunteered for the council seat representing Coalfield (Dist 1). She is an Issaquah School District employee. A discussion of membership recruiting followed, including suggestions to recruit and communicate via school newsletters to parents. A motion was made, seconded and passed to appoint her to the council.
4. Tom C. gave an update on the Atlas program with GRCC. He would like to get a contract to support the King County Conservation District. Another possibility is funding for (through?) the Alpine District of the Chief Seattle Council of the Boy Scouts.

Administrative Reports:

Recording Secretary: Moved and passed approving 17 October minutes with spelling corrections.
