Community Meeting Update

- Dave D. gave a report of the community meeting held last week regarding DDES Code Enforcement and attendant concerns. The issues discussed are legally complex. The information reported here was discussed by staff as the current policy. This is not legal advice.

In general terms, here are some of the basic guidelines:

- If a No Trespassing sign is posted, Code Enforcement as well as accompanying Sheriff's deputies must 1) go to the front door to attempt to contact the owner/resident and 2) leave if either contact is not made or if they are requested to leave.
- Inspection of the property may be conducted from a neighboring property (if that property owner/resident allows), from the air, etc.
- A letter to the DDES stating that access is expressly denied without explicit case-by-case approval of owner

Additional procedural documentation is expected in the future.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:59pm.

Initially submitted via email (US mail to Dick C.) to all UAC members (US mail to Dick C.) on

PRESIDENT - EDIE JORGENSEN
 VP - KELLY FAORO
 TREASURER - HEATHER COLBURN
 SECRETARY - GWENDOLYN HIGH
